Request for Applications - ENTELEC Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Energy Telecommunications and Electrical Association (ENTELEC) are soliciting applicants for a corporate member vacancy on the Board for the 2010-2011 conference year. The Board of Directors is looking for persons in the SCADA or telecommunications area who want to learn about the latest technologies as well as work with a team of industry leaders to further the mission of the organization.

Background:

ENTELEC was founded in 1928 to provide a forum for SCADA, automation, and telecommunications technologies. It has a Board of Directors comprised of ten members drawn largely from the energy industries and their suppliers. The Board meets twice per year, usually at a conference location. ENTELEC conducts an annual conference, including technical presentations and a trade show, typically located in Houston, TX. The second annual board meeting takes place in Denver, CO during the ENTELEC Fall Seminar Series.

Benefits: Membership on the ENTELEC Board confers numerous benefits:

- Network with SCADA and telecommunications leaders in the energy industry from across the U.S.
- Learn the latest advances in technology through review of papers from leading energy and technology companies.
- Learn about the latest product offerings from a wide range of SCADA and telecommunications vendors.
- Learn the mechanics of coordinating and organizing a trade show.

Requirements:

- Willingness to work with other technical leaders in furthering the goals of the ENTELEC
- At least a three year commitment for a Director position
- Employee of an ENTELEC Corporate member or Associate member company
- Attend two Board meetings per year (fall and spring)
- Ability to travel to the Board meetings twice per year
- Approval from your manager/supervisor

The time commitment throughout the year is typically less than 5%. The most intense work is typically prior to the two semi-annual Board meetings.

Please complete the application below and send to Amanda Prudden at Amanda@Entelec.org by February 28. All applicants will be considered and notified of their status by March 13.
