

Zetron Participates in GSA Disaster Recovery Program

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 8, 2008

Redmond, Washington, U.S.A. – October 8, 2008: Zetron, Inc., a premier provider of mission-critical communications systems, today announced its participation in the GSA Disaster Recovery Purchasing Program.

Given the recent natural disasters that Texas and the neighboring states have endured, replacement equipment might be necessary for damaged facilities. One purchasing option is the GSA Disaster Recovery Purchasing Program used to receive Public Assistance reimbursement from FEMA.

Under GSA Contract “GS-35F-0086S”, Zetron is listed as both a Cooperative Purchasing and a Disaster Recovery Program participating vendor.

Click on the link below to view the guidance on the FEMA website and read the “9580 Job Aids and Fact Sheets” for the General Services Administration Disaster Recovery Purchasing Program: http://www.fema.gov/government/grant/pa/9580_103.shtm

For information on current Major Disaster Declarations, please visit:

<http://www.fema.gov/news/disasters.fema#sev1>

For more information, contact the Zetron Sales Department at 425-820-6363.

About Zetron

For over 25 years, Zetron has been a leading provider of mission-critical communication solutions for public safety, transportation, utilities, manufacturing, healthcare, and business. With offices in Redmond, Washington, U.S.A.; Basingstoke, England, U.K.; Brisbane, Australia; and numerous field locations; Zetron supports a worldwide network of authorized resellers and distributors. Zetron is a wholly owned subsidiary of Kenwood Corporation. For more information, contact the Zetron Sales Department at (425) 820-6363. Or visit: <http://www.zetron.com>.