The essay (including citations, references, bibliography, etc.) shall not be more than 5 pages (12-point font, double spaced).*

Essay Topic: ENTELEC member companies rely on wireless spectrum to support their underlying business operations. The FCC has different regimes for licensing spectrum, including:

- (1) dedicated spectrum for electric utilities and oil & gas companies (ex. 6 GHz and 11 GHz bands);
- (2) shared bands of spectrum that are available for these companies (ex. 3.65 GHz band); and,
- (3) auctioning spectrum to commercial carriers that can offer service to ENTELEC member companies.

What are the pros and cons of these different licensing regimes? How do you think the FCC should make additional spectrum resources available to support the expanding needs of ENTELEC member companies?
