General Information & Facility Specifications

FIRE REGULATIONS:

A fire marshal will be making inspections throughout the show checking that exhibitors and Show Manager are in compliance with the state and local codes (enclosed).

Please make sure that you have not stored any loose trash, empty boxes, or literature behind your booth. Please do not clutter the aisles with similar materials. All materials within your booth must meet local, state and federal fire retardation levels. If a violation is found, Show Manager will inform the exhibitor and that violation must be removed immediately. If the exhibitor cannot be found, Show Manager will remove the violation at the exhibitor's expense.

FOOD SERVICE:

Levy is the exclusive provider of in-booth food & beverage services in the exhibition facility. Information on the services provided and can be obtained by contacting Levy at: 713-853-8113. No outside food or drink may be served without purchasing it through Levy.

INSURANCE:

Exhibitors are encouraged to obtain a rider on an existing policy protecting them against damage, loss or theft of their materials or displays during move-in, show days, and move-out.

The general service contractor is responsible for exhibitor's materials only while they are handling them. The contractor is not responsible for damage to uncrated material, improperly packed material or loss/theft after material has been delivered to the booth space or before material has been picked up at the end of the show.

SECURITY:

Uniformed security guards will monitor the exhibit hall during the entire show period. While general perimeter security is provided the security of your booth or valuable items cannot be guaranteed. It is advisable to remove valuable items that are easily removed when you leave your booth. Report any missing items to Show Manager and to the security supervisor immediately.
